

SHANGRI-LA HOTEL, PARIS

Testimonials

I wanted to take some time to relay some of the messages our clients have expressed regarding their meal last night. It seems all, without exception, had the most sensation evening and loved the picture they found in their rooms last night!

From our point of view it was a pleasure to work with you and your team to deliver such an amazing dinner in a wonderful setting.

In fact that said, all staff were so helpful and carried out their duties efficiently and with a smile.

Maybe see you in London, but for now au revoir

Regards and the very best wishes

Thank you for your note, we are back London, safe and sound!

Thank you very much for all the support we received at our event last week. We have very high standard, and these were met at all times by your teams on the ground. The service was impeccable – not only the way we experienced it but also our colleagues and clients who commented on it.

Please pass on the feedback to your teams.

If the event takes place next year again, we would love to organise it at your hotel again.

Have a great week.
