

SHANGRI-LA HOTEL, SINGAPORE

FACT SHEET

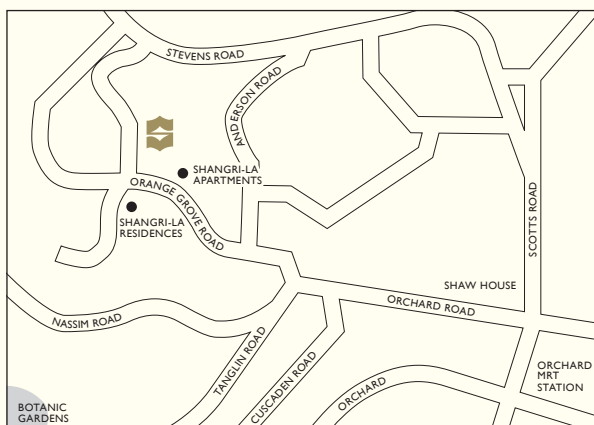

INTRODUCTION

Shangri-La Hotel, Singapore is an urban oasis set amid 15 acres of landscaped gardens, and mere minutes away from Orchard Road. The flagship property of the group, it first opened its doors in 1971. The hotel is named for the city in Tibet, made famous by British novelist James Hilton in his book Lost Horizon, published in 1939. Just as it provided peace and tranquillity to wandering travellers, the Shangri-La Hotel, Singapore today offers respite from the hustle and bustle of life, enveloping its guests with its warm and friendly Asian-style hospitality.

LOCATION

The hotel is a short walk from Orchard Road and the UNESCO World Heritage Site of the Singapore Botanic Gardens. It is a 10-minute drive to the CBD and 30 minutes away from Changi International Airport. Access to public buses and trains is just a short stroll away.

ACCOMMODATION

Tower Wing Deluxe Room

The hotel offers 792 luxurious guestrooms and suites across three distinct wings. An additional 127 serviced apartments and 55 residences are available within the property for extended stays.

- Relunched in 2017, the iconic Tower Wing has 503 contemporary-style guestrooms, suites and a dedicated family floor. It was the first wing to open, in 1971, and is also home to the Horizon Club Lounge that boasts an unparalleled panoramic view of the city.
- A tropical sanctuary awaits in the Garden Wing, offering the perfect hideaway for families and leisure travellers. All 158 spacious guestrooms and suites have a balcony that overlooks lush greenery or the hotel's expansive swimming pool.
- The Valley Wing is the accommodation of choice for heads of state, C-suite leaders and discerning luxury travellers. Its 131 guestrooms include 26 suites offering personalised butler service, and are accessible by the wing's own private lobby. Also located within the same building are a private lounge and dining space.

Visitors planning on a longer stay in Singapore can opt for one of the 127 serviced apartments, or 55 serviced residences located within the hotel grounds. The former require a minimum stay of six nights, while the latter, three months.

A 24-hour gymnasium is also available in the hotel. Work out with a certified personal trainer, or enjoy a tennis game at one of the three courts. Alternatively, join an outdoor group yoga class in the evening. Then take a dip in the outdoor pool or Jacuzzi to cool off, both of which are surrounded by lush tropical landscaping.

FAMILY FRIENDLY

Dedicated to guests with families, Level 9 of the Tower Wing is every child's dream come true. Five two-bedroom Family Suites are found here, which can be connected to one of the 19 Deluxe Family Rooms to convert into a three-bedroom unit for larger families. Within the suites, amenities including organic toiletries, Stokke Babycarrier and diapers are available. No young one should leave without visiting Buds by Shangri-La, an interactive play area that occupies more than 1,800 square feet of space on Level 1 of the Tower Wing.

NATURE & ART

Spanning 15 acres, the hotel's lush landscaped gardens house more than 110 varieties of flora – from ornamental flowering trees to aquatic plants, from vibrant tropical blooms to shady fruit trees. A must-visit is The Orchid, a 7 metre-tall, open-air greenhouse dedicated to Singapore's national flower, built to commemorate the hotel's 45th anniversary in 2016.

Nature also makes its presence felt indoors at the Lobby Lounge, where a basalt rock wall measuring 9 by 6 metres, featuring nine different types of living plants, designed by landscape artist Charlie Albone. Complementing this is a large collection of art. Unmissable is Tree Canopy by Hirotoishi Sawada, an installation in the lobby made up of stylised metallic leaves that drift serenely in the air and contributes to that grand sense of arrival.
