

FACTS AND INFORMATION

SHANGRI-LA HOTEL, LHASA

LOCATION

Shangri-La Hotel, Lhasa is situated amidst striking mountain landscape and is just minutes from the Norbulingka Palace and the Potala Palace, both part of the "Historic Ensemble of the Potala Palace", a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The Buddhist temple monastery of the Potala Palace was built in the 7th century as the Dalai Lama's winter residence. Norbulingka Palace was built in 1755 and served as the traditional summer residence.

Lhasa is the capital and largest city in Tibet and means "Place of God". It sits on Qinghai-Tibetan plateau on the banks of the Lhasa River at an altitude of 3,650 metres above sea level, and is one of the highest inhabited regions on earth. The city is surrounded by the Himalaya mountain range and has over 1,300 years of history.

Guests can reach the city by train on the world's highest railway, or by air to the Lhasa Gonggar Airport just 50 kilometres from the city centre. The hotel is located right in the centre of Lhasa city, a 10-minute drive from the Lhasa Railway Station.

ACCOMMODATION

The hotel comprises 262 contemporary guestrooms and 17 expansive suites, as well as the exclusive Horizon Club Lounge. Rooms are spacious with a minimum size of 43 square metres and suites provide up to 86 square metres of luxurious space. Guests can enjoy stunning views of the Potala Palace or the breathtaking mountains and can relax in the comforts of traditional Tibetan architecture and interior design. 10 units of one or two-bedroom long-stay apartments are also available with 86 to 129 square metres of comfortable living space.
