CULINARY ORIGIN

ROOTED IN NATURE

Our banquet menus at Shangri-La The Marina, Cairns celebrate the abundance of Tropical North Queensland, showcasing fresh, seasonal produce and the diverse flavours of the region. Guided by a commitment to quality, sustainability and local connections, each menu is thoughtfully crafted to reflect the destination's natural surroundings.

Guests can experience the richness of the region through locally sourced seafood, premium Australian produce and vibrant seasonal ingredients, carefully selected for their freshness, flavour and provenance. From the waters of the Coral Sea to the fertile landscapes of Far North Queensland, every element tells a story of place.

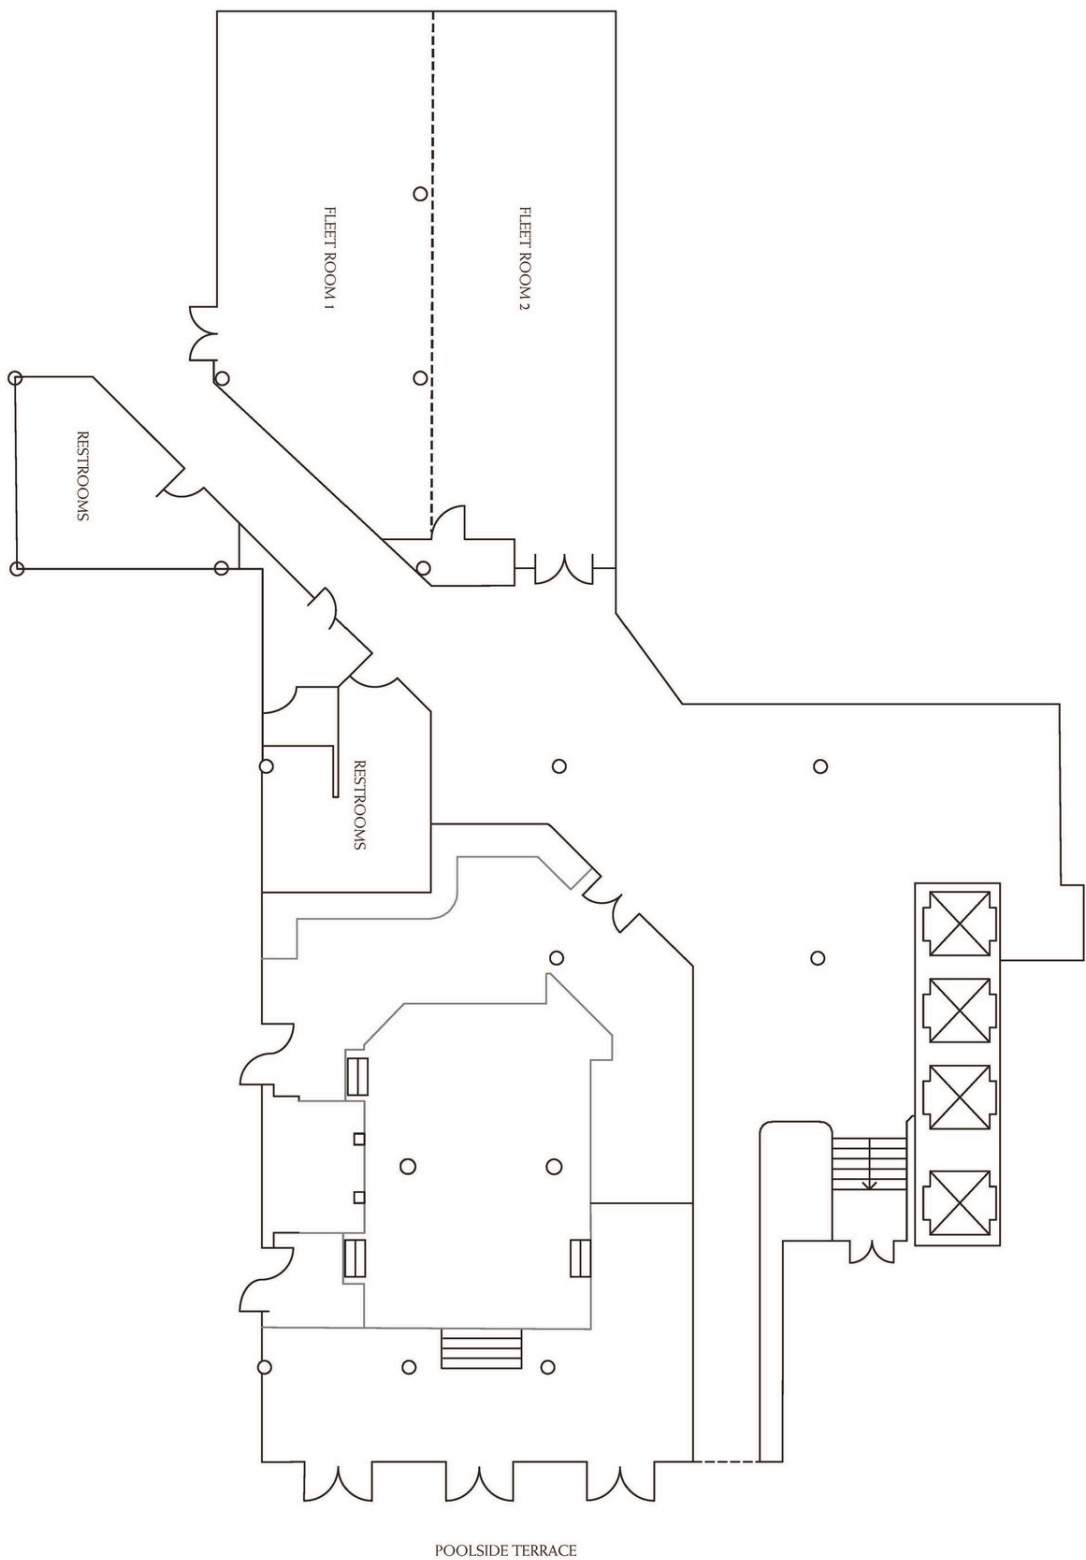

Inspired by the landscapes that surround us, our culinary team works closely with local producers and artisans to create dishes that capture the spirit of Cairns. Each ingredient is thoughtfully chosen to bring authenticity, creativity and a deeper connection to the destination.

Together, these elements create memorable dining experiences that go beyond the plate—celebrating nature, community and the unique flavours of Tropical North Queensland for every event.
